

Please do not mess with our right to privacy. For all to long tele marketeers could annoy us in the privacy of our homes. I work shift work and there isn't anything that bugs me more than being awakened by a tele marketer when I'm working nights. Please don't take the balls out of this law like the seat belt law that was enacted.